NON-UNIFORM DAY ON FRIDAY 17TH JANUARY

Hopefully Santa brought you lots of lovely presents! Maybe some of them were bottles of plonk? The Roman Way Supporters are thinking ahead to this summer's Fundraising Fun Day, as last year's was such a success, but we know that we ask a lot of parents just before the event for cakes, bottles, books etc. This year we thought we'd spread the load so next Friday will be a non-uniform day. Just bring in your spare bottles of wine, fizz, bubble bath and beer and we'll use them to raise money for the school in the summer.

Thanks very much - The Roman Way Supporters.

THE CHANGE CHALLENGE

Spare change down the back of the sofa?
Loose change clogging up your purse?

Roman Way supporters will be placing a jar in each classroom so that children can bring in spare change from home and help fill it up. The class with the most money collected at Easter will win £50 to spend on a special treat. The rest of the money will be added to the general fundraising for the school. We'll be keeping a close eye on the bottles to see how the collections are coming on and will share their progress with you! Look out for the poster in your child's book bag.
